

David Reibel
Senior Vice President and General Counsel
Aspect

As senior vice president and general counsel, David Reibel is responsible for the Aspect worldwide legal activities, including advising senior management and the board of directors on legal matters, overseeing corporate compliance and governance initiatives, managing mergers, acquisitions and other commercial transactions, as well as providing legal support to the sales, services and partner organizations at Aspect.

Prior to joining Aspect, David held General Counsel positions with Esprit Telecom, First Telecom, Aprisma Management Technologies and WAY Systems. Earlier in his career, David practiced law with two firms in Washington D.C., worked for a non-profit space institute, and was a legislative aide to a U.S. Congressman. His specialties include corporate governance, corporate finance, mergers & acquisitions, contracts, licensing and other commercial and operational matters.

David has a bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, where he was elected to the Phi Beta Kappa Society. David earned his juris doctor degree from Stanford Law School. During his legal studies, David also completed the Erasmus student exchange program in International and European law at Leiden University, the Netherlands.