

Aspect® Workforce Management™ Virtual Schedule Attendant

Reduce contact center costs and empower your contact center agents with an easy, efficient tool for managing changes to their schedules.

With an ongoing need to drive down cost and increase efficiency in any contact center environment, Aspect Workforce Management Virtual Schedule Attendant provides a highly effective solution. Utilizing integration between Aspect Workforce Management and one of Aspect's industry leading IVR platforms, agents can automatically alert administrative staff of changes affecting their schedules, which will free up resources and improve contact center scheduling forecasts.

Key Differentiators for Aspect

- ✓ Empower Agents
Allow agents to take control and manage their schedules remotely, and at their convenience.
- ✓ Increase Productivity
With reduced administrative workloads, management has more time to focus on overall improvements to the contact center.
- ✓ Reduce Costs
With the ability to automatically update absence and late exceptions, the need for "live" administrative support will dramatically decrease.
- ✓ Create Scheduling Efficiencies
With no manual delay in exception entry, intraday schedules will be updated faster and with improved accuracy.

Key Components

With Aspect Virtual Schedule Attendant you will be able to increase agent satisfaction, improve the quality of your forecasts, and effectively automate some of the key "manual heavy" contact center activities. All while positively affecting the bottom line revenue of the contact center business.
